- Who: Angela DiGiacinto
- Major: Fashion
- Occupation: Student
- Style credo: Casual, yet fun and always up to date.

And she's the pick of the day because: We love her Spring- ready look and as DiGiacinto puts it, " that's why I love this cropped jacket with long, wide leg pants." Her floral bag which is big to hold all her design needs matches great with the spring theme. She also claims she likes to change her style by adding funky shoes to give a spark to her outfit. So much for fashion wisdom!
